THE 24TH ALSA NATIONAL ENGLISH COMPETITION

INVITATION PROPOSAL

I. INTRODUCTION

Asian Law Students' Association (ALSA) is an international, non-profit and non-political association which consists of law students from several countries in Asia. Currently, ALSA has been expanding its network through affiliations with European Law Students' Association and Australian Law Students' Association. ALSA International is composed of 16 National Chapters, where one of them is ALSA National Chapter Indonesia. ALSA Local Chapter Universitas Indonesia (ALSA LC UI) is one of the members of the 14 Local Chapters in ALSA National Chapter Indonesia.

Since 1995, ALSA LC UI has successfully held ALSA National English Competition or ALSA E-Comp, a competition which uses English as its language of instruction, targeted for senior high school and university students. Numerous senior high school and university students from all over Indonesia had continually participated in this event, thus nationally ALSA E-Comp had successfully proved its prominent existence for 23 years, with the previous total number of competition participants reaching 797 (seven hundred and ninety-seven) people. Continuing the success, we proudly present the 24th ALSA National English Competition (ALSA E-Comp 2020).

II. THEME

This year, ALSA E-Comp 2020 will be held with the tagline of “Take the Opportunity, Achieve the Extraordinary”. With this theme, ALSA E-Comp 2020 is expected to be able to serve as a medium to develop the participant's skill, potential and knowledge throughout the various competitions that are held. By acknowledging these matters, the targeted competitions participants of ALSA E-Comp 2020 are expected to prepare themselves better in tackling the challenges and issues ahead of their time in the future.
